The Internationaler Bund (IB)

The Internationaler Bund (IB) is, with its non-profit organisation, its limited companies and shares in other companies, one of the largest service providers in the fields of youth and social work, education and vocational training in Germany. The IB-Group is politically non-aligned and non-denominational. More than 11.000 people work for the IB in 700 facilities and branches in 300 locations. All over Germany the IB-Group is helping 350.000 children, young people, adults and senior citizens every year with their career and personal planning regardless of their religious allegiance or their geographic origins.

Young, hip and right in the middle of it ...

haus international is more than a hostel: It is a centrally located base for school- and student groups and a lively place to meet other people from all over the world.

Our hostel is perfect for groups, school-trips, meetings as well as all individual travellers and families. If you want to visit all the leisure and cultural sights in and around Munich, we are the place to stay.

Don't expect splendid luxury in our 630-bed hostel but we have all the service and comfort which travellers need during their stay at our house and in Munich.

Our rooms are clean and well-kept but rather simple furnished and vary from single to spacious multi-bed rooms with up to eight beds.

All the famous tourist sights like Allianz Arena (soccer), English Garden, Olympiapark, Oktoberfest-grounds or Marienplatz are easy, fast and comfortable to reach.

Not only an overnight accommodation ...

Hostel haus international offers you:

- 180 rooms with a total of 630 beds, daily breakfast buffet included
- Single- and double rooms with shared shower / toilet
- Single- and double rooms with en-suite bathroom, TV, safe
- Multi-bed rooms with three to eight beds with en-suite bathroom
- Large restaurant (half-board, full-board, packed lunch on request) with patio and beer garden
- Bar / disco Discovery, only for hostel guests
- Function room for up to 175 persons with all technical equipment
- Various leisure-time possibilities, free Wi-Fi, own bicycle rental, teacher's lounge
- Open 365 days
- 24 hour staffed front desk
- No (youth) hostelling ID necessary, no age limit
- Special discounts and prices for directly booked school-trips and groups as well for long stays

Meet and chill ...

Work and fun are close together at hostel haus international.

Book our function room for your conference or event, prepared for your individual and technical needs.

In addition, we offer you the catering of your choice, from a coffee break up to lunch or a gala buffet.

Our bar / disco Discovery is the meeting point for all our international travellers and groups at night. Relax after an exciting day in Munich at the bar or the dance floor and meet at our hostel new people and friends from all over the world.

During our low season from November till February we also rent out our disco Discovery exclusively for private events or parties.

Please contact us for the latest prices during our low- and high season, for trade fairs as well as for the yearly Oktoberfest in Munich.
